*Based on lump-sum payments. Paying in installments will result in extra charges of 3% (excluding Grades 10-12). See installment deadlines below.

○ Tuition for G10-G12 may be supported by the Japanese government and the actual payment amount will differ according to the student's and parent's address and income. The amount of support provided will range from ¥0- ¥600,000.

♣Includes the IB Programme fee, Material fee, and Extracurricular fee.

**Grades 7-9 will also be charged yearly at the beginning of the year for mandatory field trips and overnight excursions. There may be an additional collection depending on the actual costs of the trip. The remaining amount will be carried over to the next year and the money left will be returned when leaving school.

Grade 10 will be billed for an Extended Overnight Trip Fee of ¥200,000.

♦ An Additional Fee of Grade 12 for ¥140,000 will be collected for students entering Grade 12 which covers the Diploma Programme Assessment Fee and the shipping fee associated with the exams. The fee is set by the International Baccalaureate. It also covers the shipping cost of documents that need to be sent to universities. Please note this fee does not cover the costs of November re-takes or remarks that may arise after taking the exam.

★ The Application Fee is required to be paid in advance when you submit the application form. This fee is non-refundable in any case.
